“The Memory of Water”

On View in Gallery Two

Dates: Oct. 7 – Nov 22, 2023

What does “Water” mean to you? As humans who inhabit bodies made up mostly of water, we need to connect to water. Water is a necessity, nourishing, its beauty inspires, its recreational, and an elemental force of nature. Water is an essential ingredient of life, it is vital to our very existence of on this planet. Although water covers 70% of the Earth, only 3% of this is fresh water. It can be hard to imagine there could be a global water crisis. Yet billions of people experience a lack of available clean water.

This exhibit invites artists to respond to Water, with a consideration through a local lens, as a starting point for discussions about its importance as a natural resource.

Open to all forms of 2D and 3D art for the wall. Photography, fiber, painting, drawing, wood, glass, ceramic.
